

Lynn Tokarczyk
Government Incentives Consultant
Business Development Strategies, Inc.

Business Development Strategies, Inc., (BDS) is a leading government incentives consulting firm in Massachusetts. Celebrating 19 years of success, BDS has helped growing companies in Massachusetts identify, negotiate and secure state tax credits, Tax Increment Financing (TIFs), and other state and local tax incentives that stimulate business investment and job creation.

The BDS team has assisted more than 100 companies in saving over $200 million in state and local taxes since its founding in 2003. BDS's roster of clients includes many publicly held and privately owned companies in life sciences, technology, manufacturing and distribution, and other sectors, such as Moderna, MilliporeSigma, Analog Devices, Vicor, Waters Corporation, Primetals, Catania Oils, Rentschler Biopharma, Lykan Bioscience, Watson-Marlow, and others.

BDS founder and President Lynn Tokarczyk is a former regional director of the Massachusetts Office of Business Development, and senior manager for Ernst & Young's State and Local Tax Incentives Practice.

A graduate of Lasell College, Lynn currently serves on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of Associated Industries of Massachusetts (AIM), the Milford Regional Medical Center Foundation Board of Trustees and is a member of MassEcon, the Middlesex 3 Coalition and several Chambers of Commerce.
